MINUTE ENTRY

The court has received a Motion for Clarification in this matter. First, the fact that two identical minute entries were entered on different dates was a clerical error. Second, as is stated in the minute entry appointing a parenting coordinator, the court expects the parties to confer with the appointed parenting coordinator prior to seeking further relief from the court.

Therefore, the intent of the court was to deny the pending petition for modification at this time, subject to the parties conferring and working out the differences with the assistance of the parenting coordinator. After a good faith attempt to resolve the issues with the help of the parenting coordinator, if the issues cannot be resolved, either party may petition the court for relief but must file the separate certification that the parenting coordinator was consulted with the date and outcome of the consultation.

The court notes that it expects the parties to follow the direction of the parenting coordinator and the unreasonable failure to do so may result in sanctions, including changes in custody and parenting time and/or ordering payment of attorneys' fees and costs.

All parties representing themselves must keep the Court updated with address changes. A form may be downloaded at: <http://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/SuperiorCourt/Self-ServiceCenter>.
